Definitions (See Policy for Other Important Definitions):

- Confined/Confinement means an insured person's admission to and subsequent continued stay in a hospital, a hospital intensive care/cardiac care unit, skilled nursing facility, rehabilitation facility, rehabilitation unit, or hospice unit, for which a daily charge for room and board is made for each day of confinement. Confinement for the same illness or injury separated by less than 60 days are considered a continuation of the same confinement.
- Hospital means an institution operated pursuant to its license for the care and treatment of sick and injured persons for which a charge is made that the insured person is legally obligated to pay. The institution must: (1) Maintain on its premises organized facilities for medical, diagnostic and surgical care for sick and injured persons on an inpatient basis; (2) Maintain a staff of one or more duly licensed physicians; (3) Provide 24 hour nursing care by or under the supervision of a registered graduate professional nurse (R.N.); and (4) Is accredited as a hospital by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Hospital does not include: 1) a rehabilitation unit or rehabilitation facility; a hospice unit, including any bed designated as a hospice or a swing bed; a convalescent home; a rest or nursing facility; an extended care facility; a skilled nursing facility or a facility primarily affording custodial or educational care, or care for the aged; a mental health facility or a facility primarily affording care or treatment for persons suffering from mental or nervous disorders; or a substance abuse treatment center or a facility primarily affording care or treatment for persons addicted to drugs or alcohol; and 2) any military or veteran's hospital, soldier's home or any hospital contracted for or operated by the Federal Government or any agencies thereof for the treatment of members or former members of the Armed Forces, unless the insured person is legally required to pay for services in the absence of this insurance coverage.
- Illness means a sickness or disease.
- Injury means bodily harm caused by an accident resulting in unforeseen trauma requiring immediate medical attention and is not contributed to by a sickness.
- Pre-Existing Condition Limitation means a medical condition, sickness or injury not excluded by name or specific description for which: (1) diagnosis or treatment was received from a medical practitioner acting within the scope of his or her license, within the one year period before the effective date of coverage. | We will not provide benefits for any loss resulting from a pre-existing condition, as defined, unless the loss is incurred at least one year after the effective date of coverage for an insured person.
- Waiting Period means the consecutive period of time beginning from the effective date of coverage in which an insured person must be insured under the Policy before benefits are payable.
